SIRE,

SECURE, under a Reign of equal Mildneſs and Energy, in our Religion, in our Liberties, our Lives and Properties, in whatever is valuable in this Life, we truſted that to a Man, every Subject of your Majeſty's Dominion would proffer his Life as a Shield to your ſacred Perſon; we have now ſeen a deplorable Evidence indeed of Human Depravity; we have ſeen that in theſe Realms there is one Being ſo loſt, ſo atrocious as to lift the Aſſaſſin Hand againſt the beſt of Kings; but we have alſo ſeen, and we bow to the Infinite Mercy and Goodneſs of our God, that the Almighty Arm protects our Sovereign and our Happineſs.

We revere Virtue in the Prince or Peaſant, and we are proud of our Monarch in his public and in his private Virtues.

May the Almighty grant that you may long live, Sire, ſtill a Leſſon to great Magiſtrates, a Pattern to good Citizens, the Comfort of your illuſtrious and amiable Family, the Glory and Safeguard of your loyal and affectionate Subjects, and we will add, for the Welfare of Europe, and for the Happineſs of the Human Race, is the earneſt Prayer of

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter, the Commiſſary, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the County of Surrey and Dioceſe of Wincheſter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our Aſſurances of the Horror and Indignation with which we are impreſſed at the atrocious and traitorous Attempt lately made upon your Majeſty's valuable Life, and our ſincere and heartfelt Gratitude to Almighty God for the providential Protection He hath afforded at once to your Majeſty, to your auguſt Family, and to all your Subjects, by preſerving your Majeſty from this unforeſeen and imminent Danger.

We aſſure your Majeſty that as the Experience of every Year contributes to ſtrengthen our Conviction of the great Bleſſings we derive from the Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign, ſo our Feelings become always more deeply intereſted on every Occaſion in which the Safety and Happineſs of your Majeſty are concerned. Perſuaded as we are that our Liberties, our Laws, and our Religion, with all the private Bleſſings we enjoy, are ſafe and entire, ſo long as they have the Benefit of your Majeſty's Fatherly Protection, juſt Diſpenſations, and pious Example; we have no Wiſh more ſincere, no Hope more ardent than thoſe we expreſs in our daily Prayers to the Almighty that He will lengthen the Days, and proſper the Deſigns of your Majeſty, which are always directed to the Glory and Happineſs of your People.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Wincheſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Chancellor, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bath and Wells, humbly preſume to offer to your Majeſty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the late providential Deliverance of your Royal Perſon from the ſacrilegious Attempt of an Aſſaſſin. In the calm Intrepidity which your Majeſty diſplayed at the Moment of Danger, we diſcover the natural Feelings of a devout and well regulated Mind, ſtrengthened and confirmed by a Conſciouſneſs of having diſcharged with Fidelity the high and awful Truſt committed to you; and whilſt we contemplate with Reverence and Admiration the Principles of genuine Piety which animate your Royal Breaſt, we acknowledge with Gratitude that they are Inſtruments in the Hands of Providence for enſuring the Safety and promoting the Happineſs of your People. May the Almighty long preſerve to your Majeſty a Life ſo juſtly dear to your Subjects; and may He make us worthy of ſuch a Prince, and enable us to impreſs upon our Hearers this great Evangelical Doctrine, that an important Part of the Service we owe to God is a dutiful Allegiance to the King.

[Preſented by the Biſhop and Dr. Moſs.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Archdeacon and Chancellor of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter, and Clergy of the County of Southampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Archdeacon and Chancellor of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter and Clergy of the County of Southampton, beg leave to approach your Majeſty with our Aſſurances of the Horror and Indignation with which we are impreſſed at the atrocious and traitorous Attempt lately made upon your Majeſty's valuable Life, and our ſincere and heartfelt Gratitude to Almighty God for the providential Protection He hath afforded at once to your Majeſty, to your auguſt Family, and to all your Subjects, by preſerving your Majeſty from this unforeſeen and imminent danger.

We aſſure your Majeſty that as the Experience of every Year contributes to ſtrengthen our Conviction of the great Bleſſings we derive from the Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign, ſo our Feelings become ever more deeply intereſted on every Occaſion in which the Safety and Happineſs of your Majeſty is concerned.

Perſuaded as we are, that our Liberties, our Laws, and our Religion, with all the private Bleſſings we enjoy, are ſafe and entire, ſo long as they have the Benefit of your Majeſty's fatherly Protection, juſt Diſpenſations, and pious Example; we have no wiſh more ſincere, no hope more ardent, than thoſe which we expreſs in our daily Prayers to the Almighty, that He will lengthen the Days, and proſper the Deſigns of your Majeſty, which are always directed to the Glory and Happineſs of your People.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Wincheſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, beg leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from a late dangerous and atrocious Attack.

When we ſee the Hand of an Aſſaſſin lifted againſt the Perſon of a Sovereign, whom the Experience of ſo many Years has endeared to us by every Tie that can unite a Monarch to his Subjects, we cannot but partake deeply of that common Indignation which was called forth by the Occaſion in all Ranks of People.

We know, Sire, from the whole Tenor of your Majeſty's Conduct, that in every Protection from Danger you will ſee and acknowledge the Hand to which it muſt be aſcribed. And, while we look up with Gratitude to the Almighty for this repeated Inſtance of his Mercy to this Nation, we pray him to enable us to manifeſt our Senſe of his Goodneſs towards us, by a dutiful Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, a ready Obedience to the Laws, and a diligent Promotion of that Religion which you cultivate and protect.

[Preſented by the Biſhop, and the Reverend Doctor Jenkin Dean of Burien.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Dioceſe of Worceſter, humbly preſent our warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty on your happy Eſcape from the late imminent Danger of Aſſaſſination.

In the midſt of our Joy for this great Deliverance, we feel, Sire, the utmoſt Conſternation when we reflect, that no regal or perſonal Virtues, no Vigilance of your faithful Servants, no, nor what is the beſt human Safeguard of Princes, the unfeigned Love and Veneration of your People, can ſecure your Majeſty from repeated Attacks of this horrid Nature.

With theſe Conſiderations deeply impreſſed upon us, we, the Miniſters of Religion, are called upon to renew with redoubled Fervour, our Supplications to Almighty God, that he will be pleaſed to take your Majeſty's invaluable Life into His ſpecial Protection, and in his great Mercy to defeat every treaſonable and wicked Attempt that may be directed againſt it.

[Preſented by the Duke of Portland]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Prebendaries, the Archdeacon and others, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor, beg leave to approach your Majeſty with our humble Congratulations to your Majeſty, and a devout Senſe of Gratitude to Almighty God, for the ſignal Interpoſition of his Providence in the Protection of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon againſt the nefarious Attempts of an undiſguiſed Aſſaſſin. Thoroughly impreſſed with a Conviction of the invaluable Bleſſings hitherto derived upon theſe Kingdoms in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, we ſhall not fail to inculcate upon the Minds of the Laity committed to our ſpiritual Care, the Thankfulneſs due on the Part of all your Majeſty's Subjects for ſo manifeſt an Inſtance of the Divine Mercy, as a juſt Motive to excite a more than ordinary Zeal in the chearful and habitual Diſcharge of every civil and religious Duty.

[Preſented by the Dean of Briſtol.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Biſhop, Precentor and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saint David's, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with Horror at the atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

While we offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations upon your Eſcape, we are naturally led to reflect upon the many ineſtimable Bleſſings which we derive from your mild and paternal Government, and cannot therefore but feel the moſt profound Gratitude to the Father of all Mercies who has thus providentially preſerved a Life of ſuch vaſt Importance to the Proſperity and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms.

We earneſtly ſupplicate the Great Diſpoſer of all Events for the future Safety of a Sovereign upon whoſe Life the eſſential Intereſts of Humanity ſo eminently depend.

[Preſented by the Biſhop.]

WE, the Biſhop, Dean, Archdeacons, Prebendaries, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich, approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of unfeigned Reſpect and Veneration, anxious to expreſs our Abhorrence of the nefarious Attempt recently made upon your Life, and our Gratitude to God for the Protection afforded it. The Value of every Bleſſing under Heaven is perhaps beſt underſtood when it is moſt in Danger of being loſt; and the Enthuſiaſm with which your Majeſty's Subjects have expreſſed their Joy at your Eſcape from the Blow of an Aſſaſſin, is the beſt Proof of the Value they place upon your Majeſty's Life; if ever there can be a Period in Hiſtory in which the Welfare and Happineſs of a People may largely depend on the Life of one Man it is ſurely the preſent; we ſee and reverence in your Majeſty's Conduct, public and private, the Wiſdom of a Ruler, the Example of an Inſtructor, the Benevolence of a Friend, the Affection of a Parent.

[Preſented by the Biſhop, attended by Mr. Adkin.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Feeling in common with our fellow Subjects the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, and particularly happy in the free Exerciſe of thoſe religious Functions which are peculiar to our Holy Profeſſion, we ſhall ever perſevere to

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Miniſters and Elders of the Scottiſh Churches, in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Vicinity, approach your ſacred Perſon with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection; Sentiments powerfully excited by the late atrocious Attempt on a Life ſo juſtly precious to theſe Kingdoms.

Permit us to aſſure you, Sire, that we and the Congregations over which we have the Felicity to preſide, are of one Heart and of one Soul, in the Prayers which we daily preſent at the Throne of Grace, that it may pleaſe Almighty God to crown your Majeſty with Length of Days, and with the Continuance and Increaſe of perſonal, domeſtic, and national Proſperity.

With the ſincereſt Affection and the moſt heartfelt Senſe of the Happineſs which we enjoy in common with our fellow Subjects under your Majeſty's Auſpicious Reign, we have been deeply affected, and have ſeen with Horror and Indignation your Majeſty's precious Life endangered, upon which not only the welfare of your Majeſty's People, but that of all Europe, and of the Chriſtian World ſo eminently depends.

That the Almighty may guard your ſacred Perſon from every Danger, and long preſerve your Majeſty as a bright Example and a Bleſſing to your People, is the ardent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt affectionate Subjects.

Moſt High and Moſt Potent Sovereign, Moſt Gracious King and Lord,

YOUR Majeſty's gracious and paternal Affection towards all your faithful Subjects, aſſures us of the favourable Reception of theſe Congratulations with which we again approach your exalted Throne.

Full of the moſt heartfelt Gratitude, Sire, we and our Congregations look up to that Omnipotent Hand, which has been of late again ſo manifeſtly extended to ſave and preſerve a Life ſo infinitely dear to us; and we obſerve with the moſt lively Joy, that the greateſt Misfortunes which the Benign Ruler of the World in His Divine Providence permits to befal your Majeſty, all tend to ſhed the greater Luſtre on your Royal Virtues, and to increaſe the Reſpect and Love of your Subjects towards you.

May your Majeſty long remain the moſt admired and the moſt honored Monarch of a grateful People.

May we ſtill many Years rejoice in your wiſe and bountiful Reign, and praiſe in you a Thouſand and a Thouſand Times, the Chriſtian, the Friend of Mankind, the Pattern of Princes, the Diſpenſer of Happineſs, and the Father of your People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects aſſembled at a Meeting of the Cornwall Agricultural Society, held at Bodmin in the ſaid County, take this Opportunity of offering to your Majeſty our moſt loyal Congratulations on the very fortunate Eſcape from the late dangerous Attack to which your Majeſty's Perſon was expoſed.

Whilſt we look with Horror upon an Attempt which might have involved this Country in ſo deep a Calamity, we cannot but acknowledge with Gratitude the ſignal Interpoſition of that Power which has ſo long preſerved your Majeſty to a faithful and loyal People.

Under your Majeſty's Auſpices the Agriculture of this Country has ſo conſpicuouſly flouriſhed, that we naturally avail ourſelves of the preſent Occaſion to congratulate your Majeſty on the fair Proſpect of its continued Improvement, and of its advancing to a ſtate of unexampled Proſperity.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Whitehaven, beg leave to approach your Throne with our ſincere and moſt heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late happy Eſcape from the violent Attempt of an Aſſaſſin: whether this Attempt is to be aſcribed to the unhappy Derangement of an Individual, or to more combined and ſyſtematic Treachery, we cannot preſume to determine; but enjoying, as we do, the Benefits of a free and equal Government, and theſe alſo heightened and endeared to us by your Majeſty's mild and paternal Adminiſtration, we cannot but feel, and therefore we wiſh to expreſs the ſtrongeſt Abhorrence of ſuch an Attempt. In a Conſtitution like our own, we think, that not only the Feelings of the Subject are outraged, but even his Rights invaded by any Attack upon the ſacred Perſon of his Sovereign, and therefore we felicitate ourſelves, at the ſame Time that we congratulate your Majeſty upon your late providential Eſcape from ſuch an Attack, and have only to add to our Congratulations, our devouteſt Wiſhes, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects, the King over a free, a loyal, and united People.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of Montroſe, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty to expreſs our Indignation and Aſtoniſhment at the late daring and atrocious Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

While we moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on your Deliverance, we cannot withhold our Gratitude to Almighty God for having in His Providence preſerved the Life of a Sovereign, whoſe Reign has afforded an uniform Diſplay of the moſt affectionate Benevolence.

May the ſame gracious Power continue to guard your Majeſty againſt the open Attempts of foreign Enemies as well as the ſecret Machinations of domeſtic Treaſon, that you may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free and happy People.
